Indigo’s expert team of booksellers poured over more than 10,000 titles released this year to select the most compelling, memorable and riveting reads of 2014. From a tale of arctic survival to a hilarious sequel about a newly expecting couple in New York City, this year’s Best Books list has something for everyone.

“Some of our choices for Indigo’s Best Books of 2014 list may seem surprising. Highlighted throughout our full list are masterful works of fiction and non-fiction across all categories and ages – but one title stood out to our team for its unique approach that captured the attention of the Indigo customer—The Oh She Glows Cookbook by Angela Liddon.” says Bahram Olfati, Senior Vice-President Print at Indigo. “Liddon’s book speaks to the interest of our customers and her book perfectly captures the zeitgeist of healthy living and the powerful influence of online communities and bloggers.”
