TORONTO - J anuary 31, 2007 -- Indigo Books & Music Inc. (TSX: IDG), Canada's largest book retailer, reported strong earnings and revenues for its third quarter ended December 30, 2006. The retailer's profit was up 3\% to $$ 41.0$ million for the period including the Christmas shopping season, pushing earnings to $$ 1.68$ per share, up $$ 0.03$ from a year ago. Included in these results was a $$ 1.6$ million write-off of software assets related to the company's online business. Indigo grew revenues $3.4 \%$ to $$ 320.5$ million, compared to $$ 309.9$ million in the same quarter last year. Commenting on the results, Indigo CEO Heather Reisman said: "We are pleased with our performance given a $6 \%$ average decline in the price of US published books driven by the strong Canadian Dollar. Not only have we have been able to grow our top line well above the North American industry average, but we've done so without the benefit of strong blockbuster titles this past quarter, compared to last year."

The Company's online sales rose $17.7 \%$ to $$ 28.6$ million, continuing the track record of double digit growth since the inception of the channel.

On a year-to-date basis, net earnings increased to $$ 34.2$ million, up $4 \%$ from last year's $$ 32.8$ million. On a per share basis, earnings were $$ 1.41$ compared to $$ 1.36$ the year prior. Revenues were up $1.7 \%$ to $$ 673.1$ million from $$ 661.7$ million while same store sales grew $1.9 \%$ in superstores and $0.6 \%$ in small format stores.
